A. INFORMATIONAL: Youth Empowerment Alliance (H. Morales)

Parks, Recreation, and Neighborhood Services (PRNS) Community Services Supervisor, Hilda Morales, presented on Project Hope. Project Hope is a resident engagement program in San Jose to support residents in building neighborhood associations and creating a safe, clean, and engaged community. The four main goals of Project Hope are: to organize a group of community leaders, to support safer and cleaner environments, to inform residents who access City services, and to create partnerships that assist in sustaining efforts. Project Hope is a citywide initiative currently present in 5 districts with established neighborhood associations. Project Hope wants to engage with the Youth Commission by inviting the Commission, Youth Advisory Council, and local youths to attend the neighborhood association meetings, monthly litter pick up events, and inform boards and communities of the opportunities for youth.
