VIII. Chair’s Announcements: Chair Snyder announced that there are some local school districts that are exploring the implementation of STEAM initiative goals and they will be connecting with the Library Department. This is a upcoming action on the school district level and a few of his education peers will be contacting the Library in that regard.

IX. Library Director’s Announcements:

Get Ready for a Coding Revolution – SJPL and the City of San José proudly presented the Coding5k Challenge – the Library’s latest initiative that will help further enhance access for FREE STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Math) learning programs for grades K to 12 students. In partnership with local tech companies and expert volunteers who presented programs throughout branch libraries teaching students how to code. The Library’s goal is to have 5,000 San Joséans participate in coding classes by the year 2020. To kick off this campaign, the Library hosted a press event at 2 p.m. on Friday, February 16 at the Hillview Branch Library. The guest speakers included Mayor Sam Liccardo, City Librarian Jill Bourne and a representative from Silicon Valley Leadership Group. For more information, visit: www.sjpl.org/coding5k
FREE Tax Help Now Available at the Library – Tax help from Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) is available until April 14 for individuals and families whose annual income is less than $54,000. Volunteers are trained to prepare basic 2016 Forms such as: 1040EZ, 1040A, 1040 with Schedule A, B, limited Schedule CEZ, C and California Income Tax Returns only. Assistance is available in English, Spanish and Vietnamese, at most locations. E-filing is also available at all participating locations which are:

- Dr. Roberto Cruz - Alum Rock
- East San José Carnegie
- Hillview
- Seven Trees
- West Valley

Black History Month and Lunar New Year Celebrations – It’s a busy month at branch libraries as they are celebrating Black History Month and Lunar New Year. In our widely diverse city, staff is well prepared to offer programs and events for people to celebrate while learning more about different cultures. We encourage all to visit www.sjpl.org to view a complete list of events celebrating Black History Month and Lunar New Year.

SJPL Will Celebrate Its’ Second Class of Adult High School Graduates – The San José Library has awarded 75 scholarships to adults who sought to earn an accredited high school diploma through the Career Online High School program. This is a result of a collaborative effort of the Partners in Reading unit and the San José Public Library Foundation. This second class has over 15 graduates who will receive their diploma during a special graduation ceremony at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 8th at the City Hall Rotunda. In addition to their diploma, these graduates also earned a career certificate in a high-demand career field, including Office Management, Child Care & Education, Certified Protection Officer, and Food & Hospitality. Library staff support adult students from enrollment through graduation so that they can achieve their academic and career goals.

 Beautify Your Branch and Eliminate your Library Fees – Patrons are invited to participate in San José Public Library’s 2nd Annual Service Day. By volunteering on Saturday, March 10th, at any of the 24-branch locations, participants will have the opportunity to reduce, or even eliminate, library fines at a rate of $20.00 per hour, as well as assisting to beautify branch libraries. Volunteers will clean books, dust shelves, and organize library materials. This system-wide event has two sessions: 10:15 AM – 12:15 PM and/or 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM.

Special Council Session regarding the Library’s Education and Digital Literacy Policy – SJPL will be hosting an informational session with City Council Members highlighting the activities and possible policy developments involving education and digital literacy within the Library Department. The session is tentatively scheduled for April 16th from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at City Hall Council Chambers. Staff will forward an invitation to the Commission when it becomes available.
