Hundreds Eliminate their Library Fines during the 2nd Annual Service Day – Over 400 people were a part of San José Public Library’s 2nd Annual Service Day titled “Beautify Your Branch” on Saturday, March 10. By participating at this event, volunteers had the opportunity to eliminate their, or their loved ones’, library fees at a rate of $20 per hour while also helping maintain a welcoming and clean environment at their branch library. SJPL waived about $6,000 in fines and over 500 volunteer hours were recorded from Service Day. Some of the activities volunteers participated in included: cleaning books, dusting shelves and organizing library materials.
San José Public Library Celebrated its 2nd Class of Adult High School Graduates – SJPL has awarded 75 scholarships to adults who sought to earn an accredited high school diploma through the program, Career Online High School (COHS), with support from its Partners in Reading unit and the San José Public Library Foundation. 20 graduates received their diploma during a graduation ceremony the evening of Thursday, March 8th, at the City Hall Rotunda. The ceremony began with opening remarks by City Librarian Jill Bourne, followed by a keynote speech from Mayor Sam Liccardo. In addition to the diploma, these graduates also earned a career certificate in a high-demand career field, including Office Management, Child Care & Education, Certified Protection Officer, and Food & Hospitality. In less than one year, there have been a total of 30 adults who have received their high school diploma at their San José Library. To date, there is a graduation rate of nearly 85%. Library staff support adult students from enrollment through graduation so that they can achieve their academic and career goals.

Celebrate the Life of César Chávez – Meet the Chávez family and learn more about the legacy and accomplishments of the labor leader and civil rights activist. This event will begin with a documentary followed by a Q&A discussion with his close friends and family on Tuesday, March 27 from 6:30 – 8 p.m. in room 225 at the King Library.

SJ Library Adds Vietnamese eBooks to its Collection for the First Time – 77 new titles were selected and added to the first batch of Vietnamese eBooks at the San José Public Library. For years, SJPL has had eBooks in other languages, such as: Spanish, Chinese and Russian but for the first time, there is now a collection in Vietnamese available to the public. Even though Vietnamese eBooks have been on the market for quite some time, they were not available for purchase under the program SJPL uses until recently. This small collection includes mostly children’s and romance titles. The library looks forward to growing the number of Vietnamese eBooks in the near future.

X. Comments and Announcements:

A. Youth Commission: The Youth Commissioner was not present for this meeting.

B. Meetings Attended by Commissioners as Commissioners:
   – Commissioner Melillo attended the Career Online High School graduation as well as the Coding 5K kick off and reported that both were teeming with terrific energy and were very enjoyable.
   – Commissioner Allen reported that she attended the Career Online High School graduation as well and that her favorite portion was when the students spoke and relayed their personal experiences in life that got them to that point in their lives.
   – Commissioner Rivers attended the Bridge Library Event held in January and asked who she should forward photos she had taken of this event to. Staff informed her that she should forward them to Marketing Representative Nancy Macias.
   – Commissioner Rivers announced that Commissioner Magaña is absent due to is recent nuptials.
   – Commissioner McMahon attend the Berryessa Friends meeting held March 20, 2018.
