VI. Council Liaison’s Announcements
City of San José District 3 Community Relations Coordinator Diego Martinez provided an update from Councilmember Torres’ Office. Councilmember Torres was happy to be a part of the Library & Leaders. He appreciated being able to share his story and how the library helped shape his life. He really enjoyed it. Councilmember Torres is looking forward to the April 25, 2023, Council meeting where he will be giving the Proclamation for National Library Week. Council District 3 will be continuing to promote all Library events in its newsletter, that comes out every month.

VII. Chair’s Announcements
Chair Mahaney-Gurahoo was absent and did not share any announcements with Vice Chair Magaña.

VIII. Library Director’s Announcements
San José Public Library Director Jill Bourne shared that the San José Public Library is celebrating National Volunteer Week, April 16 – April 22, which is an annual celebration that recognizes the important contributions volunteers make to our community. Next week, April 23 – April 29, is National Library Week. Tuesday, April 25 is National Library Workers’ Day. The Library will join the celebrations by sharing a series of social media posts that feature our staff, plus we’ll invite the public to pick up a free “Right To Library” sticker at any SJPL location. Our City Council liaison Councilmember Torres will be presenting a commendation in recognition of national library week at the City Council meeting on April 25, and Commissioners are welcomed to join us for that event if you are able. The San José Public Library’s 3rd Annual Spring into Poetry Contest is taking place now until Sunday, April 30th. The contest has five different age categories. First through third place contest winners in their age groupings will receive a prize bundle that will include books and a gift-card; their work will also be featured in a special collection hosted via the library’s Short Edition portal online and our Short Edition dispensers. Give it a try and submit your work at sjpl.org
