Schools/City Collaborative Spring Convening

Established in 1997, the Schools/City Collaborative (S/CC) is comprised of Local Education Agency (LEA) leaders, the Mayor, Council members, and City staff.

The mission of the S/CC is to advance the educational attainment of San José students. By developing and maintaining a strong collaboration between the City and LEAs, the S/CC will identify the needs of students and align resources, programming, opportunities, and interventions to ensure equitable educational outcomes for all San José youth.
